

PLAY PANZER GRENADIER FOR FREE

Drive on Ponyri VI: 1st of May State Farm

7 JULY 1943

Yesterday the 292nd Infantry Division failed to push on through Ponyri to achieve the desperately needed operational maneuver room for the follow-on panzers. So, today orders sent them back again to clear the stubborn defenders from the village.

They also received the secondary task of securing a small hamlet called the 1st of May State Farm located just east of Ponyri.

Elements, 307th Rifle Division

Set up first at least four hexes from the north edge. All eligible units may begin Dug In:

- 3 x INF
- 1 x SMG
- 1 x 82mm
- 1 x Wagon
- 1 x HMG
- 1 x ATR
- 1 x 76.2mm

Leaders: 1 x CAPT, 2 x LT

Morale: 7/7

Initiative: 1

Off-Board Artillery: 2 x 10

Game Length: 10 turns

First Turn: 1000

Other: The town on Board 43 is 1st of May State Farm. All woods are light woods (apple orchards).

Elements, 292nd Infantry Division

Enter anywhere along the north edge on Turn One:

- 4 x INF
- 1 x ENG
- 2 x 81mm
- 1 x HMG
- 1 x StuGIII

Leaders: 1 x CAPT, 2 x LT, 1 x SGT

Morale: 8/6

Initiative: 2

Off-Board Artillery: 1 x 24

Special Rules

1. The German initiative level is lowered by one for every two steps lost (tanks count double).
2. The Soviet initiative level is lowered by one for every step lost (the wagon doesn't count).
3. On any one turn the German player may draw one aircraft.

Victory Conditions

The player who controls the 1st of May State Farm at the end of play wins.

Conclusion

Slowly the Germans pried the Russians from their sanctuary and the claimed their consolation prize. Unable to stop to enjoy their triumph the victors pushed on, becoming embroiled in the deadly fighting for the rubble of Ponyri.